

Beat Goes On STOMP-style Body Percussion & Samba Drumming workshops

'Inspirational! Beat Goes On workshops are both energizing and uplifting.'

– Stuart Smith, Headmaster, St Catherine's British School, Athens

'I would like to thank you for a totally uplifting and wonderful experience – you have enabled us all to produce an outstanding piece of work.'

– Dave White, Deputy Head, St. Andrew's C of E Junior School, Brighton

'I found Ollie's work incredibly easy to incorporate into and develop further in both the KS1 and KS2 music curriculum. Ollie instantaneously engaged both staff and pupils and his subject knowledge is outstanding.'

– Caitlin Sherring, Woodcroft Primary School

(2015 Music Teacher Awards Winners 'Best School Music Department')

NEW CPD from Beat Goes On – 'Developing percussion in the classroom – for KS2-5'

Having delivered very popular workshops at several COBIS events, Beat Goes On are now delivering bespoke CPD for teachers of Key Stages 2-5. Participants develop their teaching of listening, composition and performance skills to encourage student-led learning.

STOMP-style Body Percussion

Ollie Tunmer is a former STOMP cast member, and brings this experience to create a high-energy, accessible and truly memorable learning environment.

Brazilian Drumming

This workshop explores a range of styles from samba to drum'n'bass on authentic Brazilian instruments, allowing participants to explore the evolution of Brazilian culture.

'Mambo' Latin percussion & 'Connect It' body percussion, both part of BBC Ten Pieces

Through high energy, fun games and exercises participants will look at a range of techniques and rhythms employed by both composers and use these to create dynamic compositions!
