Diploma for International Lead Teaching Assistants

What is it?

The COBIS DILTA is delivered with exceptional, personalised support and a strong belief that having a Lead Teaching Assistant directly impacts on Teaching Assistant practice and children's learning experiences.

The course will be a combination of eLearning, research, collecting evidence and writing assignments.

The programme is 9 months long and should take approximately 108–144 hours to complete. Candidates study at their own pace through flexible eLearning.

Who is it for?

Aspiring Lead Teaching Assistants or Early Years Practitioners working in an International setting.

For those wishing to develop leadership skills and the ability to manage and co-ordinate a Teaching Assistant team, it is aimed at those wanting to be a key liaison between the Teaching Assistants and the Senior Leadership Team.
